

Armand Wine is a preacher who has dedicated the past 15 years of his life to spreading the Gospel. Having graduated from the Memphis School of Preaching in 2015, he has been serving as the minister of the Avondale Church of Christ for the past 11 years. During this time, Armand has consistently displayed his unwavering passion for God and His Word.

In addition to his ministry, Armand possesses exceptional skills in the field of Information Technology. Formerly serving as a Technical Project Delivery Manager, he gained extensive experience leading software development and architectural initiatives. Today, he continues to leverage that expertise to support technology-driven ministry and community efforts. His unique blend of spiritual insight and technical proficiency enables him to connect with people from diverse backgrounds, bridging the gap between technology and faith in a way that is both relatable and impactful.

Beyond his professional life, Armand finds immense joy in sports and fellowship. He firmly believes in the power of community and actively engages in friendly competition and bonding over shared interests. However, it is his deep love and devotion to Jesus that serves as the center of his life. Armand's unwavering faith and dedication are evident in everything he does, impacting the lives of those around him and inspiring others to find comfort and salvation in Christ.

Armand is happily married to his lovely wife, Kaneshia Wine, for the past 8 years. They have a two daughters Aliya (6) and Aniya (2). Family is of utmost importance to Armand, and he approaches his role as a husband and father with the same commitment and love that he brings to his ministry.
